4. Inform the public through announcements and advisories of the LPCC programs and initiatives;
5. Conduct regular and systematic price monitoring activities in wet markets, supermarkets, grocery stores, gasoline stations, fuel retailers and other retail establishments within the City;
6. Require all concerned establishments to display clear, visible, and legible price tags on all basic necessities and prime commodities offered for sale, in accordance with existing laws;
7. Monitor compliance with pricing laws, including prevention of overpricing, sale of expired goods, and other unfair or deceptive trade practices affecting consumers;
8. Recommend appropriate administrative actions for violations discovered during monitoring activities.

SECTION 2. Section 5 of Ordinance 1082 is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 5. SUMBUNGAN NG PRESYO – The “Sumbungan ng Presyo” hotline is hereby established to be quickly responsive to the inquiries, requests, complaints and concerns of constituents relating to prices and commodities

The official hotline number shall be 8352-1000 local 1616.

The hotline shall be handled by the LEDIPO, through the Consumer Welfare Unit. Any complaints received shall be forwarded to the City Agriculture Office, Market Committee and other concerned offices and committees for verification purposes.

SECTION 3. Section 6 of Ordinance 1082 is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 6. ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES – Any natural or juridical person who violates any provision of this ordinance and R.A. No. 7581, including but not limited to overpricing, failure to display price tags, sale of expired goods, or submission of inaccurate pricing information, shall be subject to administrative penalties in the following manner:

FIRST OFFENSE: Warning and 1st Notice

SECOND OFFENSE: ₱ 5,000.00 and suspension of business permit

THIRD OFFENSE: ₱15,000.00 and termination of business permit

For violation involving overpricing of basic necessities and prime commodities during periods of declared emergency, the penalties provided under Republic Act No. 7581 (Price Act) and other applicable laws shall apply in addition to the penalties herein provided.

For sale or display of expired goods, the establishments shall immediately pull out the affected products and may be subjected to inspection and documentation by the concerned offices.

The imposition, assessment, and collection of the administrative fine is without prejudice to the filing of a criminal action against the offender/s under RA 7581.

SECTION 6-A. PAYMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES.

Any person or business establishment found liable for an administrative violation under this Ordinance shall pay the corresponding administrative penalty within fifteen (15) calendar days from receipt of the Notice of Violation or Notice of Assessment, unless a timely appeal is filed in accordance with applicable rules.

Failure or refusal to pay the imposed administrative penalty within the prescribed period shall have the following consequences:

- a. The unpaid administrative penalty shall constitute a valid ground for the non-renewal, suspension, or withholding of the issuance or renewal of the Mayor's/Business Permit until the penalty has been fully paid;
- b. The City Government may initiate appropriate administrative or civil actions authorized under existing laws and ordinances to collect the unpaid penalty;
